

UW-Madison School of Medicine and Public Health Warning List Travel Policy and Exemption Form

Students who wish to pursue study in countries on the warning list should make a request in writing and submit it to the Global Health Institute at least 4 months prior to the planned study. The request will be reviewed by a committee of faculty. Possible reasons for granting an exemption include: student will be pursuing a unique educational experience that cannot be gained elsewhere and that is directly related to their graduate studies or career plans; student is a citizen of the country in question; student has considerable experience in the country in question.

1. Rationale for study abroad in a country on the US State Department Warning List: Indicate why this is important, what educational goals will be met, and how these goals are unique and require study in the country in question

2. Safety precautions that you will take: Indicate your support network and other resources you will use to maintain safety.

3. Any other information that we might consider:
