GRAD STUDENTS REPORT: SHARING RESULTS FROM GHI'S GRADUATE RESEARCH AWARDS

Reproductive rights in Mexico:

Camilla Reuterswaerd, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Political Science

Health concepts/ health outcomes:

Matthew Jiang, Ph.D. Candidate, Department of Psychology

Two of the GHI Graduate Student Research Award recipients report back on their work to further global health across the world. Camilla Reuterswaerd looks at what happened to reproductive rights in Mexico after abortion was legalized in 2007. Matthew Jiang delves into whether strong concepts about health can impact health outcomes.
