

Visit to the Wiwa's Community of Tezhumke

Sierra Nevada de
Santa Marta,
Colombia

Clinic and Community Resilience Project

May 2023

First Contact with Community's Authorities

Explanation of the project to the Indigenous Health Secretary and his work team.

Indigenous House of Wiwa Yugumaiun Bunkuanarua Tayrona Organization (Valledupar, Cesar)

Mamo praying for protection and for the good development of the project.

Ritual of Protection and Acceptance from the Mamo and Saga

“Aseguranzas”. Bracelet with protective power.

Interview with NGO doctors, med interns and health secretary about the clinic services, population and needs.

Interview with Dusakawi I.P.S (Health Care Provider). Request of medical records and technical specification of medical equipment.

Interview with midwife Maria Gregoria about the birth process in the community.

Medicinal Herbs

Interviews with NGO, Health Care Provider And Midwife

Information compilation from the clinic

Compilation of hardcopy medical records, and determination of architectural plan of the existing clinic.

Project with multidisciplinary actors

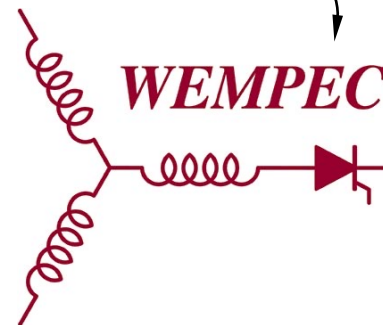

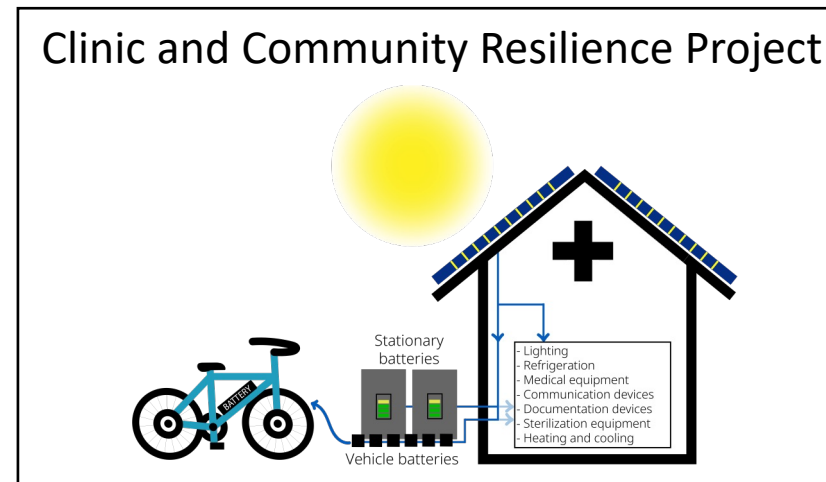

Global Health Institute
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Fundación
Salud para el Trópico
Tropical Health Foundation

Installation of 24V_{dc} Lights in the clinic

Two 12V light bulbs connected in series and supplied by the batteries and solar panels.

Beauty of the land

