GLOBAL HEALTH SYMPOSIUM IS NEXT WEEK!
"MOVING GLOBAL HEALTH FORWARD"
APRIL 10

DONATE TO GHI DURING DAY OF THE BADGER
APRIL 16-17

NEXT GLOBAL HEALTH TUESDAY WEBINAR
MAY 21

A MUST-SEE EVENT!
2024 GLOBAL HEALTH SYMPOSIUM: APRIL 10TH
REGISTER TODAY!
MARK YOUR CALENDAR! The 2024 Global Health Symposium, “Moving Global Health Forward,” will be held Wednesday, April 10, 2024, at the Health Sciences Learning Center, 750 Highland Avenue, and offered via livestream. Event co-hosts, Global Health Institute (GHI) and Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health, welcome you to attend!

The event will include GHI Director Jorge Osorio moderating a UW–Madison panel to explore the future of global health with Vice Provost and Dean of the International Division, Frances Vavrus; Vice Chancellor for Medical Affairs, Robert Turell Professor in Medical Leadership, and Psychiatry, Dean of the School of Medicine and Public Health (SMPH), Robert N. Golden; and Associate Professor, Endocrine Surgery, SMPH, Kristin Long.

Keynote speakers, Erin Barbato, Director of the Immigrant Justice Clinic at University of Wisconsin Law School, and Sara McKinnon, Faculty Director of LACIS at UW-Madison, and Professor of Rhetoric, Politics & Culture in the Department of Communication Arts, will share their work with GHI on the Safe Passage from the Darién Gap Project and Migration in the Americas Project. Click here to register for the event.

Plus, there will be posters from across campus to showcase global health projects and networking opportunities. Can’t make it to Madison? The event will also be live-streamed.

Click here to register for the event.

SUPPORT GHI ON DAY OF THE BADGER
Save the date for Day of the Badger 2024! Supporting GHI on this day of giving helps us continue our collaboration efforts across academia, government, industry, and NGOs through our One Health Center Network.

Giving to GHI means you support our mission, expanding the Wisconsin Idea worldwide by utilizing a One Health approach, leveraging UW–Madison's expertise, thus improving health for humans, animals, and plants.

Visit our website to learn more about our One Health Centers, strategic focus areas, and how you can help put the Wisconsin Idea into global action. You can find our Day of the Badger page here.

MAY 21ST GLOBAL HEALTH TUESDAY WEBINAR:
CLIMATE CHANGE IMPACTS ON GLOBAL HEALTH
Join us for the Global Health Institute’s (GHI) next Global Health Tuesday Webinar, "Climate Change Impacts on Global Health," on Tuesday, May 21, from 9-10am (CST), when United Nations Foundation Senior Fellow for Global Health Diplomacy, and GHI Board of Visitors Member, Ambassador John E. Lange, hosts the timely conversation on climate change impacts on global health with UW-Madison experts and members of GHI’s Advisory Committee.

Panelists include: Sumudu Atapattu, Dominique Brossard, and Jonathan Patz (see graphic in headlines). Click here to learn more on GHI's website. Please click here to register.
Waging Peace in Vietnam
U.S. Soldiers and Veterans who Opposed the War

Exhibit and Programs Promoting Healing and Reconciliation
April 1 to 22 at the Wisconsin Historical Society on the University Library Mall

Tuesday April 2, 5:00 p.m.
Soldiers in Revolt
Host John Nichols, Moderator Al McCoy
David Cortright, Professor Emeritus University of Notre Dame, Foremost authority on Dissent and Resistance in the U.S. Armed Forces.
Ron Haebel, Army Photographer of the massacre at My Lai that took 504 lives and shook the world.
Susan Schaal, Navy Lieutenant led 500 soldiers and sailors on San Francisco peace march, was court martialed and sentenced to six months hard labor.

Tuesday April 9 at 7 p.m.
Documentary film
“The War at Home”
Followed by Q & A with film director Glenn Silber, moderated by Paul Soglin.

Tuesday April 16, at 7 p.m.
Book Talk and Signing
In conversation with Norman Stockwell
Le Ly Hayslip, her memoir When Heaven and Earth Changed Places inspired filmmaker Oliver Stone’s Heaven and Earth, the third of his Vietnam trilogy.

Sunday April 14, 5:30 p.m.
In Concert
Vân-Anh Vanessa Võ, Kronos Quartet’s world-famous soloist on the cîn trénh, followed by her starring role in Connie Field’s documentary The Whistleblower of My Lai, Q and A moderated by Nan C. Kim, Director, Center for Southeast Asian Studies.

Wednesday April 10 at 7 p.m.
Documentary film
“Sir! No Sir!”
Followed by Q & A with film director David Zeiger, moderator: Judy Karofsky.

Sunday April 21, at 2 p.m.
Healing and Reconciliation
Documentary film
“Hunting in Wartime”
Mistreatment of Native American soldiers in Vietnam and back home.
With an introduction and Q & A by Attorney Samantha Skenandore with film director Samantha Farinella.

Friday April 5, 12 Noon
Healing War’s Legacies
Moderator Edwin Martinl, Provost, UW Oshkosh
Ngo Xuan Hien and Chuck Searcy. Direct from Vietnam’s BENVU Bomb and Landmine Clearance project.
Heather Bowser suffers effects of her father’s exposure to American chemical weapons.
Comments by: Brad Geyer, Madison Veterans For Peace, Dr. Eileen Ahearn on healing moral harm, Mike Boehm, Exec. Director, Quakers, Inc.

Light refreshments will be provided at each event.

Community Sponsors
The Capital Times
The Hoven Wright Center for Social Justice
Chino Clearega Foundation
Madison Veterans For Peace
Clarence Kallin Chapter 25
Pax Christi Madison
PSR Madison
Interfaith Peace Working Group
Madison Friends Meeting (Quakers)
NOW-22: Waging Peace in Vietnam U.S. Soldiers and Veterans who Opposed the War: After a tour that spanned seven years and 24 campuses in the U.S. and Vietnam, the acclaimed exhibit, “Waging Peace in Vietnam: U.S. Soldiers and Veterans Who Opposed the War” will end its long run with a showing in Madison. The exhibit honors tens of thousands of drafted and enlisted GIs and veterans who created a war resistance movement within the American military as the war raged in Vietnam. From April 1–22, 2024, the exhibit and additional programming will be available at the Wisconsin Historical Society and locations across campus. Click here to learn more on the International Division's website.

3: Fulbright US Student Program Virtual Information Session: Join on Wednesday, April 3, 2024, from 5-6:15pm CST, for an online Group Presentation Session to learn about opportunities for UW–Madison students and alumni to pursue graduate study, conduct research, practice their creative arts, and teach English through the Fulbright U.S. Student Program. You will learn about the different types of Fulbright awards, application components and tips, and have all your questions answered. There will be a breakout room with the University of Wisconsin–Madison Fulbright Program Adviser to learn more about applying through UW–Madison and the resources they offer. For more information, contact Mark Lilleleht, UW Fulbright Coordinator: uwfulbright@wisc.edu; fulbright.wisc.edu. Click here to learn more about the Fulbright U.S. Student Program. If interested, click here to register for this event.

4: Whose Knowledge?: Cyberbotany and the Quest for Epistemic Justice in Psychedelic Research: On Thursday, April 4, 2024, join the Borghesi-Mellon Psychedelic Pasts, Presents & Futures Workshop Group for a virtual presentation with Dr. Joanna Kempner. The reemergence of psychedelic research in universities often comes with robust historical narratives blaming politicians for the rise and fall in scientific interest in these substances. While public policies made it difficult to study psychedelics in an institutionalized setting, prohibition only drove experimentation underground. This resulted in the emergence of, what Kempner coins, “cyberbotany.” This digital ethnobotanical study leverages online communities’ data to understand psychedelic use, circumventing legal and logistical research barriers. While cyberbotany recognizes diverse knowledge systems’ value, it's crucial to prioritize epistemic justice in psychedelic studies, valuing knowledge from non-traditional settings for a more equitable and comprehensive understanding of psychedelics. Click here to learn more and register.

4-11: The 26th Wisconsin Film Festival will be presented April 4-11. Under the auspices of the University of Wisconsin-Madison’s Department of Communication Arts, this year’s Festival will be showcasing 140+ films in seven venues around Madison - including UW Cinematheque, Music Hall, Chazen Museum of Art, The Marquee, Barrymore Theatre, Bartell Theatre, and Flix Brewhouse. Tickets are on sale here, along with a full film guide.
Within the UW Student Admission Policy, every current UW–Madison student with a valid WisCard is eligible for one free ticket to every screening at every Festival venue all Festival long—FOR FREE! Students may arrive at a screening with their WisCard and attend the screening if it isn’t sold out.

5-7: 175th anniversary celebration keeps bringing the wow with ultimate community open house: "As the University of Wisconsin nears the close of its 175th anniversary year, there’s one final flagship event you won’t want to miss. It’s the biggest and best yet, with more than 60 events. UW–Madison is opening its doors wide, inviting everyone to a 175th Anniversary Community Open House April 5-7, 2024. On deck: family-friendly fun, interactive science and art activities, Bucky Badger and much more — all on campus, all open to the public and all free, even the 175 S’more Years ice cream."
7: UW Carbone Cancer Center's 50th Anniversary Open House: Join on Sunday, April 7, 2024, from 12-4pm for science, celebration and FREE Babcock ice cream to honor the 50th anniversary of UW Carbone Cancer Center. Explore our inflatable colon, breast and lung exhibits. Participate in 20+ interactive stations. Go behind-the-scenes on research tours. Participate in yoga for survivors and patients. The first 500 people to receive complimentary sunscreen! The event will be held at the Health Sciences Learning Center (UW School of Medicine and Public Health, 750 Highland Avenue). It is free and open to any community member. Click here to learn more. Click here for the UW Health event listing.

8: April 8, at 4pm, the Mildred Fish-Harnack Human Rights and Democracy Lecture welcome Judge Belkis Izquierdo, Vice President and Magistrate, Special Jurisdiction for the Peace of Colombia, who will share, "El Territorio como víctima y sujeto de derecho en la JEP (Territory as a Victim and Subject of Law)" - 30th anniversary lecture (in Spanish with simultaneous English translation). On Zoom and in person at the Alumni Lounge, Pyle Center. Register here. Walk-ins are welcome.
Week is a curated series of events exemplifying UW's civic and community engagement efforts in the spirit of the Wisconsin Idea. Taking place Monday, April 8 to Tuesday, April 16, 2024, the week is a celebration and showcase of the diverse array of partnerships and collaborations taking place between University of Wisconsin and our local and global communities. Wisconsin Idea Week is open to everyone: students, campus staff, community partners, and more. The 2024 Global Health Symposium, co-hosted by the UW–Madison Global Health Institute and The Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health, is featured as an event in Wisconsin Idea Week. Click here to learn more.

10: MARK YOUR CALENDAR! The 2024 Global Health Symposium. “Moving Global Health Forward,” will be held Wednesday, April 10, 2024, at the Health Sciences Learning Center, 750 Highland Avenue. Event co-hosts, Global Health Institute (GHI) and Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health, welcome you to attend! (See article above for more info).

11: AI, Ethics, and Healthcare: The 15th annual Bioethics Symposium will be held in-person on Thursday, April 11, 2024, from 1-5pm in Health Sciences Learning Center Room 1306. This year’s Bioethics Symposium will examine AI-related concerns. The goal is a broad roadmap for using health-centered AI in ways that are equitable, empathetic, and empowering. More information forthcoming. Click here to learn more.

11-13: Honoring Our Past, Securing Our Future: Resilience and Reclamation in Higher Education. From April 11-13, 2024, the 2024 Spring Conference will be co-convened by UW System Women's and Gender Studies Consortium and UW System Office of the Gender and Women's Studies Librarian. At a moment when rollbacks to affirmative action, academic freedom, reproductive justice, LGBTQ+ protections, and other human rights are overwhelming, this year's theme illuminates the long history of resistance and resilience that has always pushed against interlocking systems of power and oppression. “Honoring Our Past, Securing Our Future” asserts that scholarship, research, and community partnerships are more urgent than ever in the fight against injustice. Collaboration, communication, and connection across disciplinary and institutional divides are essential to our continued success and longevity. Click here to learn more and register.
Earth Fest: From April 19-26, join the Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies and the Office of Sustainability for Earth Fest, a weeklong celebration of the environment and sustainability. Earth Fest kicks off on Friday, April 19, with panel discussions, art and performances, a keynote address by Tony Reames, and be sure to stop by and visit with GHI Associate Research Professor John Chan on the 24th for their Sustainability Research Networking and Brainstorming workshop! Click here to see the lineup — and register for the kickoff — today!

25: 2024 Undergraduate Symposium: This event, held on Thursday, April 25th, 2024 at Union South, offers undergraduate students from all areas of study at UW–Madison the opportunity to showcase and celebrate their research, scholarly pursuits, service-learning, community-based research, art, and creativity. It also serves as a forum for the campus community to learn about and engage with undergraduate work. See details about submitting a presentation application by Sunday, March 17th below! Click here to learn more. If interested, click here to apply.

MAY
2: Registration is now open for the 2024 Wisconsin Collaborative Clinical Research Professionals Conference! This FREE, in-person only conference on Thursday, May 2, 2024, from 9am-4:30pm, offers the opportunity to join other individuals, from across Wisconsin, who have a shared interest in advancing clinical research and improving health outcomes in our state and beyond! The Wisconsin Collaborative Clinical Research Professionals Conference, to be held at the Goodman Community Center, will convene professionals from a range of clinical research sectors, including academic health centers, community organizations, industry, and healthcare. This will be a terrific opportunity to engage with fellow stakeholders, build partnerships, and exchange ideas on research participation, diversity, technology, and career development. Click here to learn more.

21: Register for the Global Health Institute’s (GHI) next Global Health Tuesday Webinar, "Climate Change Impacts on Global Health," on Tuesday, May 21, from 9-10am (CST). United Nations Foundation Senior Fellow for Global Health Diplomacy, and GHI Board of Visitors Member, Ambassador John E. Lange, hosts a conversation on climate change impacts on global health with UW-Madison experts and members of GHI’s Advisory Committee. Panelists include: Sumudu Atapattu, Dominique Brossard, and Jonathan Patz. Click here to learn more on GHI's website. Please click here to register.
Inaugural Global Oncology Symposium

May 21, 2024:
In-Person Symposium and Networking (3:30-6:30 pm)
An event to foster collaborations and growth
Explore the global challenges and disparities in cancer care and discover how UW and the NIH are actively working to address these issues
Presentations in Health Sciences Learning Center (HSLC)
- Lecture Hall 1335 followed by networking reception with food and drink in HSLC atrium

May 22, 2024:
UW Carbone Grand Rounds (8-9 am)
This is a hybrid event
HSLC - Lecture Hall 1306

Guest Speaker:
Satish Gopal, MD, MPH
Director, Center for Global Health, National Cancer Institute

Questions?
globaloncology@uwcarbone.wisc.edu

Register at:
Rolling Application: The Division of the Arts is pleased to announce the Call for Applications for the Artivism Student Action Program (ASAP). The grant facilitates student-led endeavors demonstrating strong intersections of art and activism. Applications opened October 1, and will stay open through the 2023-2024 academic year. Click here to learn more and apply.

Rolling Application: Empower Through Health is a global health 501(c)(3) non-profit that works to innovate healthcare delivery in rural areas of low-income countries. They operate in Buyende District, an area in Eastern Uganda that has one physician for a population of over 400,000, and to date have treated over 30,000 patients. They currently have openings for Field & Research Directors (FRD) who are passionate about making a real-world impact on global healthcare delivery through innovative global health research and experiential leadership. Click here for more information.

APRIL

3: Applications for the Economic Mobility Fellowship Program are due Wednesday, April 3, 2024. The Economic Mobility Fellowship Program is a federal government-university partnership that seeks to broaden the pipeline of program administration, policy and research staff working on issues of poverty, inequality, and economic mobility in the United States. The Institute for Research on Poverty is calling for applications from individuals who have recently completed/or are about to complete a master’s degree for a full-time fellowship for 2024–2025 with an anticipated start date in summer 2024. The fellowship is for one year with the potential of renewing for a second year. Click here to learn more and apply.

3: Applications for the Visiting Poverty Scholars Program are due Wednesday, April 3, 2024. The Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP) at the University of Wisconsin–Madison invites applications from U.S.-based scholars who belong to groups underrepresented in academia to apply for its Visiting Poverty Scholars Program. The Visiting Poverty Scholars Program aims to enhance the research interests and resources available to poverty scholars from underrepresented populations, foster interaction among a diverse set of scholars, and broaden the corps of poverty researchers. Beyond providing scholars an excellent venue for presentation of and feedback on their work, the visits provide extended contact and discussion with IRP/U.S. Collaborative of Poverty Centers (CPC) affiliates, which may lead to future collaborations. Click here to learn more and apply.

15: Applications for Intima, a journal of narrative medicine, are due Monday, April 15, 2024. Intima publishes original contributions of literary and artistic merit that relate to the theory and practice of narrative medicine. Applicants can submit fiction, nonfiction, poetry, field notes, studio art, and academic studies. Click here to learn more and apply.

23: Applications for the Emerging Poverty Scholars Fellowship are due Tuesday, April 23, 2024. The Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP) at the University of Wisconsin–Madison invites applications from junior scholars from Emerging Poverty Scholars Fellowship aims to support the career development and success of promising emerging poverty scholars from underrepresented racial and ethnic populations. In addition, IRP uses this program to establish long-term relationships between fellows and other poverty scholars, which may lead to future collaborations. [Click here to learn more and apply.]

25: Waging Peace in Vietnam Essays are due Thursday, April 25, 2024. Students are invited to submit a 500-650 word essay with their reflections and impressions after having viewed the Waging Peace Exhibit. The student with the winning essay, as selected by the guest judge, will receive an award of $500. Craig McNamara, son of the Vietnam War era Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and author of the book Because our Fathers Lied, will serve as the Guest Judge. (Contest sponsored by Madison Veterans For Peace Clarence Kailin Chapter 25 and UW International Division). [Click here to learn more.]

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

+ Today, April 2, is the 2024 Spring Election and Presidential Preference Vote in Wisconsin. Need more info on how and where to vote? [Check out this link] from the State of Wisconsin Elections Commission for helpful information.

+ Did you mark your calendar for the partial eclipse on April 8th? Did you know the UW- Madison Department of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences has important guidelines to protect your eyes and stay safe? [Check out this link] to learn the best tips. And
If you'd like to receive our weekly newsletter, please use this link.

The Global Health Institute sends Tuesday updates to let you know about GHI and campus events and opportunities that foster deeper understanding of the complex determinants of health and disease for people, animals and ecosystems. To submit global health related events or reading suggestions in GHI's Events+, send them to communications@ghi.wisc.edu by noon on Fridays.

Learn more about the Global Health Institute at ghi.wisc.edu.