View this email in your browser

CAN'T MISS IN THIS ISSUE

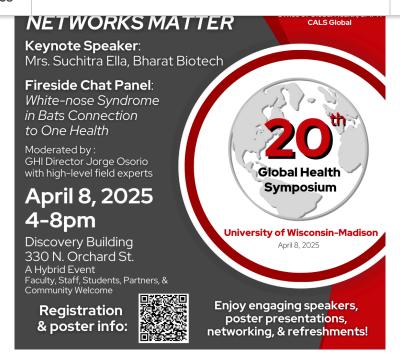

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN! 2025 GLOBAL HEALTH SYMPOSIUM ON APR 8TH: WHY GLOBAL HEALTH NETWORKS MATTER

ONE WEEK AWAY! WOMEN IN SCIENCE: GHI'S GLOBAL HEALTH TUESDAY WEBINAR ON FEB 25TH

APPLY NOW: SEHGAL FOUNDATION NUTRITIONAL OUTREACH & EDUCATION INTERNSHIP

APPLY NOW: 2025 HENRY ANDERSON III GRADUATE AWARD

CONNECTING HEALTH THROUGH IMPACTFUL STORYTELLING: GHI'S GLOBAL HEALTH TUESDAY WEBINAR ON MAR 11TH

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, April 8th, from 4-8pm, as UW–Madison's Global Health Institute (GHI), Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health, and CALS Global invite you to attend the 20th Global Health Symposium: Why Global Health Networks Matter. The event will take place at the Discovery Building, 330 N. Orchard Street, and features keynote speaker, Mrs. Suchitra Ella from Bharat Biotech, posters from across campus showcasing global health projects, and a fireside chat panel discussing, White-nose Syndrome in Bats Connection to One Health.

All are welcome to attend this free event, but registration is required. Visit the GHI website for info, registration, and poster abstract application (due March 17th).

ONE WEEK AWAY!
GHI'S FEBRUARY WEBINAR, "WOMEN IN SCIENCE"
FEB 25, 9-10AM (CST)

We welcome you to join us for the Global Health Institute's Global Health Tuesday Webinar on Tuesday, February 25, 2025, from 9-10am (CST), when Kristin Long, Associate Professor of Surgery, UW–Madison, moderates a timely conversation on Women in Science.

Long leads the discussion with Caroline Zellmer, Senior Program Manager, Foresite Labs, and Zuzana Burivalova, Assistant Professor, Forest and Wildlife Ecology, UW–Madison.

Click here to learn more. Please register here using this Zoom registration link.

SEHGAL FOUNDATION INTERNSHIP APPLICATIONS DUE FEB 24TH, 4:30PM CST

Guaranteed $800 grant for every participant on a summer 2025 UW Signature Internship go.wisc.edu/intern-abroad intern will use interactive, participatory tools and games to communicate nutritional knowledge to help address cultural, social, and literacy barriers. Apply now! (Net-ID sign-in required.)

2025 HENRY ANDERSON III GRADUATE AWARD APPLICATIONS OPEN THROUGH MARCH 2

The Henry Anderson III Graduate Award application is now open! Applications will be accepted through Sunday, March 2, at 11:59pm (CST). The Henry Anderson III Graduate Student Award in Environmental and Occupational Public Health from the Global Health Institute (GHI) supports UW-Madison graduate or health professional students interested in pursuing research in the areas of environmental and occupational public health—that is the study of the role of environmental or occupational factors as determinants of health. Click here to learn more and apply.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR GHI'S MARCH WEBINAR, "CONNECTING HEALTH THROUGH IMPACTFUL STORYTELLING"

We welcome you to join us for the Global Health Institute's Global Health Webinar on Tuesday, March 11, 2025, from 10-11am (CST), when Sara McKinnon, Professor of Rhetoric, Politics & Culture, Communication Arts; & Faculty Director, LACIS, UW–Madison, moderates a timely conversation on Connecting Health Through Impactful Storytelling.

McKinnon leads the discussion with Riley Ray Griffin, Technology Reporter, Bloomberg News; Apoorva Manavilli, Science & Global Health Reporter, New York Times; and Jamie Hansen, Communications Manager, Stanford Center for Innovation in Global Health.

Click here to learn more. If interested, click here to register on Zoom.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

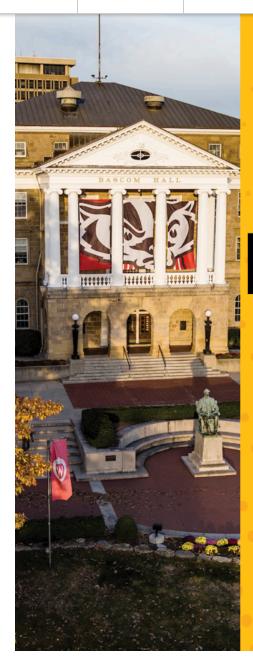

FEBRUARY

TODAY: Computer Sciences' N+1 Institute and GE HealthCare are jointly hosting a campus-wide reverse pitch competition focused on Innovating for Global Health. Over the course of several weeks, students form teams and develop tech solutions addressing the reliability, security, accessibility, and cost challenges of global healthcare. At a final judging event, student teams will pitch their ideas to leaders from GE HealthCare, where winners will be awarded $1,000 scholarships and be featured (alongside their academic unit!) in editorial/social coverage of the event. The kickoff will take place TODAY, February 18, from 2-3pm. Click here to learn more.

TODAY & TOMORROW: The All-Campus Career & Internship Fair is returning for Spring 2025 with two days of opportunities for UW-Madison students to connect with a wide range of employers. The Fair is open to ALL enrolled UW-Madison students, plus recent alumni who graduated within the past two years. Click here to learn more.

UW-MADISON'S GRADUATE OPTIONS

GRADUATE

PROGRAMS VIRTUAL

OPEN HOUSE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20

LEARN MORE:

GO.WISC.EDU/VIRTUAL-OPEN-HOUSE

20: It's never too early to start thinking about your future. Sign up for the Graduate Programs Virtual Open House on Thursday, February 20, to learn more about graduate school at UW–Madison. Click here to register.

21: Join Transform Mid-Atlantic on Friday, February 21, at 11am CST, as they continue their Broader Impacts Series where they will welcome Dr. Anne Toomey of Pace University. Science has a public relations problem. Many scholars want to make a social impact with their research, and are increasingly being required to do so through major federal funding sources. This webinar will feature Dr. Anne Toomey, an environmental studies faculty and social science communicator at Pace University in NYC, who will discuss her new book, Science with Impact: How to Engage People, Change Practice, and Influence Policy. The talk will explore the roots of science communication issues, what leads to shifts in attitudes and behaviors, and how scientists and stakeholders can engage effectively with communities and policymakers for real-world change. Click here to learn more and register.

Dr.Kasey Keeler

Assistant professor of Civil Society & Community Studies and American Indian & Indigenous Studies

Gareth Baldrica-Franklin

PhD Student Dept. of Geography

Building Bridges: Cross-Discplinary Collaboration in Community-Engaged Work

February 21st | 12:30pm

Round Room in the Red Gym

Join us for a workshop where Dr. Kasey Keeler and PhD student Gareth Baldrica-Franklin will discuss Mapping Teejop, a digital mapping project that uses Indigenous walking tours of UW–Madison to showcase the power of cross-disciplinary collaboration in community-engaged research.

For more information about Mapping Teejop, scan the QR code below.

21: Join the Association of Community-Engaged Scholars (ACES) for "Building Bridges: Cross-Disciplinary Collaboration in Community-Engaged Work," on Friday, February 21, from 12:30-1:30pm, at the Round Room in the Red Gym. This workshop focuses on the value of cross-disciplinary collaboration in community-engaged scholarship. PhD student collaboration between the American Indian & Indigenous Studies Program and the Department of Geography's Cartography Lab, showcasing the power of partnership in creating impactful community-focused initiatives. For more information about Mapping Teejop, click here.

20-23: CUGH 2025: Innovating and Implementing in Global Health for a Sustainable Future. In Atlanta, Georgia, from February 20-23, join over 1,800 innovators, leaders, scientists, students and implementers, as they come together to address some of the world's most pressing challenges. The conference theme, 'Innovating and Implementing in Global Health for a Sustainable Future', embraces many issues important to global health and development. Individuals from academia, NGOs, government, INGOs and the private sector, across a range of biomedical and non-biomedical disciplines are encouraged to participate in the conferences. Also, don't forget to attend the Pre-Conference Workshops on February 20. They are free and open to all. Registration will open in January. Attendees at CUGH2025 will be inspired and challenged to learn new skills, gain new contacts and find ways to improve the wellbeing of people and the planet. Click here to learn more.

Neck School of Iviedicine of USC

Department of Population and Public Health Sciences

USCInstitute on Inequalities in Global Health

The Infectious Disease Epidemiology and Applied Studies (IDEAS) Initiative & USC Institute of Inequalities in Global Health present:

Vaccine Development and Global Health

Keith Chirgwin MD

Independent Advisor & Consultant
Former Deputy Director of Regulatory Affairs
Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

February 24, 2025 12:00 - 1:00PM PST ZOOM

Register for Zoom link

24: The Infectious Disease Epidemiology and Applied Studies (IDEAS) Initiative and the USC Institute on Inequalities in Global Health (IIGH) invite you to a virtual seminar featuring Dr. Keith Chirgwin, an independent advisor and consultant for several Drug & Vaccine Developers and Funders. Prior to retiring from the Gates Foundation in 2021, Dr. Chirgwin oversaw regulatory strategy for the Foundation's product development related grants and investments. Prior to the Foundation, he was a Vice President at Merck Research Laboratories where he oversaw regulatory and development

Prior to joining Merck, Dr. Chirgwin was an Associate Professor of Medicine at SUNY Health Sciences Center at Brooklyn in the Department of Medicine where he served as the Principal Investigator of the AIDS Clinical Trials Unit and Director of the HIV patient care services. Click here to register for this 2pm CST event on Monday, February 24.

Subscribe Past Issues

RISE:

EXPLORING POSSIBILITIES FOR GLOBAL RESEARCH ON CLIMATE CHANGE & HEALTH

FEB 25

8 - 9:15 A.M. 133 STERLING HALL

Join us for a discussion on the health impacts of climate change, inspired by the Wisconsin RISE initiative. Hear from:

- Dr. Allen: Heat waves & cardiovascular risk in aging Black adults.
- Dr. Wendland: Floods & women's reproductive health in Malawi.
- Dr. Abadie: Hurricanes & injection risk in rural Puerto Rico.

Co-sponsored by IRIS NRC

25: Mark your calendar for RISE: Exploring Possibilities for Global Research on Climate Change and Health on Tuesday, February 25, at 8am. Man-made climate change affects the environment in which we live and has a dramatic effect on our health. Inspired by the Wisconsin RISE initiative, this session will explore the possibilities and challenges of conducting research on climate change and health. Dr. Allen will discuss the effects of heat waves on stress and cardiovascular risk among aging Black adults in the US. Dr. Wendland will address how floods intersect with women's 25: Mark your calendar for GHI's February Global Health Tuesday Webinar: Women in Science, Tuesday, February 25, 9am. Kristin Long, Assistant Professor of Surgery, with clinical practice in Endocrine Surgery, UW–Madison (and GHI Advisory Committee Member), moderates a timely conversation on women in science. Long leads the discussion with Caroline Zellmer, Senior Program Manager, Foresite Labs, and Zuzana Burivalova, Assistant Professor, Department of Forest & Wildlife Ecology, and the Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies, UW–Madison (see story above). Click here to register.

ENGAGED SCHOLARS TALK

Co-Developing Research Agendas with Older Community Members

During this discussion, Madison Board of Older Adult Advisors (BOAA) members and their collaborators from the UW-Madison School of Nursing will share their process for identifying the research topics and questions that they feel would most improve older adults' health and healthcare, as well as the group's top research priorities.

Presenters: Joann Pritchett & Denice Morgan (BOAA); Kim Neuschel & Diane Farsetta (Nursing)

Wed. Feb 26, 10:30am Morgridge Center (Red Gym)

26: The Center for Aging Research and Education (CARE) at the UW–Madison School of Nursing invites you to join an upcoming discussion with members of the Madison Board of Older Adult Advisors (BOAAs). The BOAAs are community advisory boards that have been organized and facilitated by CARE since 2022 and co-facilitated by the Wisconsin Network for Research Support (WINRS). With support from the Baldwin Wisconsin Idea Endowment, each BOAA recently developed their own community aging research agenda. During these discussions, BOAA members will share their process for identifying the research topics and questions that they feel would most improve older adult health and healthcare and what each group's top research priorities are. BOAA members will co-present with CARE and WINRS.

26: Mark your calendar for a Wisconsin in Washington (WiW) information session. WiW will host three information sessions this Spring so students may learn more about the WiW program, including interning in Washington DC, completing classwork in domestic & international issues, and connecting with UW alumni & professionals. This is the first of three information sessions and is only a virtual option on Wednesday, February 26, 11am-12pm. You must register

27: On Thursday, February 27, at 3:30pm, join the Center for Limnology as they co-sponsor guest speaker, Dr. Karletta Chief, at the Biology Colloquium at Noland Hall (250 N. Mills St.) Room 108. Dr. Karletta Chief (Diné) is a Professor & Extension Specialist in Environmental Science at the University of Arizona, director of the awareness and expertise in sustainable food, energy, and water systems (FEWS), specifically through off grid technologies to address the lack of safe water, energy, and food security in Indigenous communities. Her presentation, Impacts to Diné activities with the San Juan River after the Gold King Mine Spill, will discuss the 2015 Gold King Mine spill as a case study about the importance for scientists and disaster responders to include cultural and spiritual factors when responding to environmental disasters and conducting a risk assessment in an Indigenous community. Find info here.

27: On Thursday, February 27, at 6:30pm, the Havens Wright Center for Social Justice and the Latin American, Caribbean, and Iberian Studies Program are screening the film Separated at the Marquee Cinema in Union South. Film screening will begin at 6:30pm with an informal conversation to follow. Academy Award®-winning filmmaker Errol Morris incisively probes the darkest chapters in recent American history: family separations. Merging narrative vignettes of one migrant family's plight with hard-hitting interviews with government officials, Morris paints a jaw-dropping picture of the state-sponsored crisis of cruelty, as hundreds of families remain separated today. Click here to learn more.

Brewing Collaborations New Date!

A GHI Coffee Mixer

NEW DATE: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28TH 9-10am Medical Sciences Center, Room 1010 globalhealth@ghi.wisc.edu

28: Mark your calendar for a NEW DATE: Friday, February 28, 9-10am, for Brewing Collaborations at GHI. Join us for a cup of joe and a chance to network with global health colleagues as we percolate collaboration opportunities on campus and worldwide and share goals. This get together happens at the GHI office on UW-Madison's campus: Medical Sciences Center, 1300 University Avenue, Room 1010. Please click here to RSVP. If you have any questions, please reach out to GHI at globalhealth@ghi.wisc.edu.

Women in Translation Circle (4W-WIT) SPRING 2025 PROGRAM

Flying Jewels and Other Lofty Insects by Jennifer Angus (USA, UW-Madison)

TRANSLATION ECOLOGIES: UNTHINKING THE BINARY

You are cordially invited to our 4W WIT event via Zoom: https://uwmadison.zoom.us/j/9069479801

Paisajes de supervivencia y de lúcida belleza Landscapes of Survival and Lucid Beauty

Book presentation of La parte profunda (The Deep Side, 2018) and Llamarada (Flare, 2024)

A translation workshop and dialogue with Argentinean Writer and Nave Visiting Scholar

La parte profunda BRENDA BECETTE

Sponsored by: The 4W Initiative, LACIS and The Department of Spanish, and Portuguese

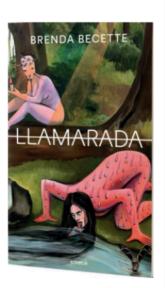

Brenda Becette

Friday, February 28 12:05 - 1:30 pm Ingraham Hall # 336 UW-Madison

Free and open to the public

28: The 4W Women in Translation Circle invites all to join their public event via Zoom with their collaborator, winner of el Premio Ciudad y Naturaleza José Emilio Pacheco (2017), the Argentinian writer and Nave Visiting Scholar, Brenda Becette. The event will take place on Friday, February 28, from 12:05-1:30pm CST online and in Ingraham Room 336.

6:30-8pm, join this free event at the Wisconsin Institute for Discovery's De Luca Forum. Sarah Eagle Heart (Waŋblí Šiná Wíŋyaŋ, Eagle Shawl Woman), Oglála Lakota, is an Emmy Award–winning social justice storyteller, entrepreneur, and philanthropic leader. Through her work, Sarah continues to champion Native American storytelling traditions, Indigenous experiences, and women's empowerment, inspiring audiences to connect, heal, and drive change. Click here to learn more.

- 4: Women's Voices in Climate Change Activism in Colombia's Public Sphere: On Tuesday, March 4, from 12-1pm, join this installment of the LACIS Lunchtime Lecture Series from the Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies Program. Presenter Dr. Adriana Angel is currently teaching at UW–Madison as a Tinker Visiting Professor of Communication for the Spring 2025 semester. The talk, focused on three of the most prominent environmental activists in Colombia—Vice President Francia Márquez, Congresswoman Isabel Cristina Zuleta, and Minister of the Environment Susana Muhamad will explore how activist discourses of climate change and environmental justice in Colombia construct contesting ontologies of environmental protection and social change within the Colombian public sphere. Click here to learn more and register on Zoom.
- 4: Mark your calendar for a Wisconsin in Washington (WiW) Program information session. WiW will host three information sessions this Spring so students may learn more about the WiW program, including interning in Washington DC, completing classwork in domestic & international issues, and connecting with UW alumni & professionals. This is the second of three information sessions and is on Tuesday, March 4, 4-5pm, at the Study Abroad Resource Center, 3rd Floor of the Red Gym. Registration is encouraged, but not required (NetID required). Find more information on the WiW Internship Program here.
- 11: Mark your calendar for GHI's March Global Health Tuesday Webinar: Connecting Health Through Impactful Storytelling, March 11, 10am (note the hour-later start time). Sara McKinnon, Professor, Rhetoric, Politics & Culture, Department of Communication Arts; Director, Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies Program; Co-chair of the Human Rights Program (and GHI Advisory Committee Member), UW–Madison, moderates a timely discussion on impactful health storytelling with panelists Riley Ray Griffin, Reporter, Bloomberg News; Apoorva Mandavilli, Science and Global Health Reporter, New York Times; and Jamie Hansen, Stanford Global Health Communications Manager. (see story above for more info)

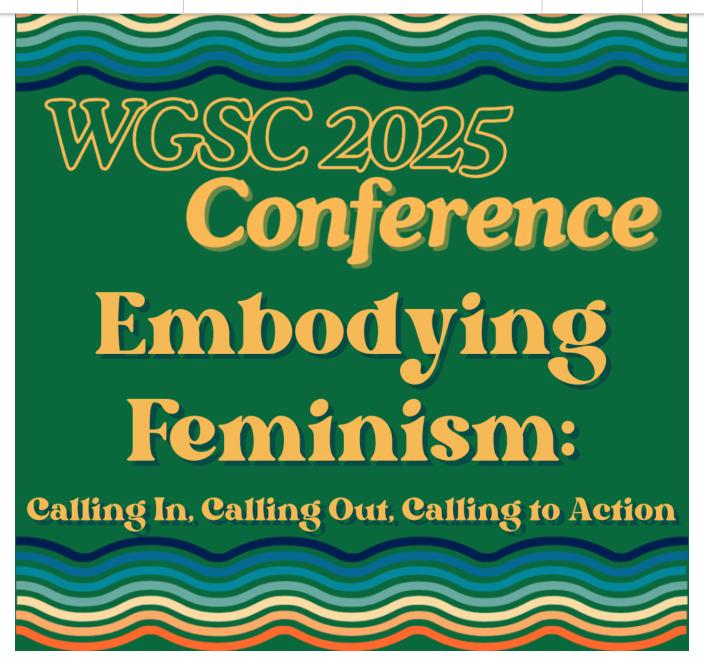

17: Shaping the Future of Women's Health: Insights and Innovations: On Monday, March 17, from 7-8pm (CST), the Morgridge Institute for Research will host their latest Fearless Science Speaker Series event. Despite the many advances in human health, research focused on women's health has a more complex history. The Morgridge Institute for Research invites you to a panel discussion on women's health, focusing on discovery, prevention, and access to care. Experts will share groundbreaking research on the link between certain viral infections and gynecological cancers, present innovative approaches to identifying and preventing preterm birth, and explore how access and social factors influence health outcomes. Please join Morgridge Institute Investigators Dr. Melissa Skala and Dr. Megan Spurgeon and available. Click here to learn more and register.

19-20: Showcase your work at the Data Science Research Bazaar, Wednesday and Thursday, March 19-20, at the Discovery Building. Researchers, students and professionals at all levels of expertise are invited to apply to showcase their work. Proposals are sought for lightning talks, posters, workshops and interactive discussions. While this year's theme focuses on artificial intelligence and machine learning in research, submissions from all areas of data science and computational work are encouraged. Learn more and apply by Jan 15.

APRIL

- 6: Join UW Health's Carbone Cancer Center Open House on Sunday, April 6, from 12-4pm, at the Health Sciences Learning Center (HSLC) for science, giveaways, Bucky, Babcock ice cream, and more. The event is free and open to all ages, and no registration is required. Join for special movie screenings and expert speaker panels. Click here to learn more.
- 7: The Wisconsin Idea Conference is a one-day event on Monday, April 7, that brings together academics, service providers, community leaders, students, and others interested in fostering partnerships that advance meaningful impacts within the community and state. This year's conference will focus on the concept of Exchange together, attendees explore ways to collaborate for positive change in nearby communities and across the state, build new relationships, and exchange ideas and resources to innovate solutions for the challenges facing nearby communities. Click here to learn more. If interested, click here to register.
- 8: Mark your calendars for Tuesday, April 8th, 4-8pm, as UW–Madison's Global Health Institute (GHI), Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health (SMPH), and CALS Global at the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences (CALS) invite you to attend the 20th Annual Global Health Symposium: Why Global Health Networks Matter. The event will take place at the Discovery Building and features a keynote speaker, posters from across campus showcasing global health projects, and panel discussing White-nose Syndrome in Bats Connection to One Health. Click here to learn more (and see story above).
- 8-9: Save the date to join the University of Wisconsin Organic Collaborative for Harvest of Ideas 2.0 "Organics as a Solution to Global Challenges." The event will be held at the Pyle Center on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 8 and 9. This event will bring together domestic and international researchers, farmers, and policy experts to discuss ways to advance organic priorities. Information about registration will be shared when available.

10-12: The 2025 WGSC Spring Conference, "Embodying Feminism: Calling In, Calling Out, Calling to Action" will take place in-person on Thursday to Saturday, April 10-12. Join for a keynote and several concurrent sessions with high-level panelists. Click here to learn more.

16: Mark your calendar for a Wisconsin in Washington (WiW) Program information session. WiW will host three information sessions this Spring so students may learn more about the WiW Program, including interning in Washington DC, completing classwork in domestic & international issues, and connecting with UW alumni & professionals. This is the third of three information sessions and is on Wednesday, April 16, 10-11am, at the Study Abroad Resource Center, 3rd Floor of the Red Gym. Registration is encouraged, but not required (NetID required). Find more information on the WiW Internship Program here.

21-29: Save the date for Earth Fest, April 21-29. Earth Fest at the University of Wisconsin–Madison will bring together all things environment and sustainability and unite our campus over the one resource and interest we all share: our world. Dive into groundbreaking research or dig in the dirt at community gardens. Sift and winnow the latest research or

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

RSS

to future Badgers. Click here for more info.

23-24: The theme for the 7th convening and two day, in-person, Our City of Nations conference at the Milwaukee School of Engineering on Wednesday and Thursday, April 23 - 24, is Stronger Together: 10 Years of OCON and an Eye on the Future. Conference registration and active participation requests are now open. Click here to register.

25: The 2025 Undergraduate Symposium will be held from 9:30am to 4:15pm on Friday, April 25, at Union South. The annual Undergraduate Symposium showcases undergraduate creativity, achievement, research, service-learning, and community-based research from all areas of study at UW-Madison including the humanities, arts, biological sciences, physical sciences, social sciences, and computer data and information sciences. Click here to learn more.

DEADLINES V

FEBRUARY

24: Deadline to submit applications to the Sengal Foundation Nutritional Outreach & Education Internship is Monday, February 24, at 4:30pm. This opportunity is fully funded by GHI and will take place in Gurugram, India. The selected intern will use interactive, participatory tools and games to communicate nutritional knowledge to help address cultural, social, and literacy barriers (see story above). Apply now! (Net-ID sign-in required)

24: Deadline to submit applications to the Sophomore Research Fellowship is Monday, February 24. Funded by grants from the Brittingham Wisconsin Trust, the Kemper K. Knapp Bequest, and the Provost's Office, the Sophomore Research Fellowship provides research training and support to undergraduates. Students have the opportunity to undertake their own research project in collaboration with UW-Madison faculty or research/instructional academic staff. Please Note: Graduate students are ineligible to serve as the project advisor. Approximately 40 Sophomore Research Fellowships are available each year. Click here to learn more and apply.

$7,500 scholarship to participate in a UW-Madison semester study abroad program in sub-Saharan Africa

Botswana · Ghana · Kenya · Rwanda · Senegal · South Africa · Tanzania

24: Deadline to submit applications to the Ambassador John E. Lange Scholarship for Study Abroad in Africa is Monday, February 24. The Fund is intended to support undergraduate students studying abroad in Sub-Saharan Africa, including those who have an interest in global health. The purpose of this Fund is to support up to three undergraduate students per year who wish to study abroad in Sub-Saharan Africa through the University of Wisconsin's International Academic Programs Office. Ambassador John E. Lange is also a member of GHI's Board of Visitors. Click here to learn more and apply.

24: Deadline to submit nominations to the Community-Engaged Award is Monday, February 24. Every year the Morgridge Center for Public Service recognizes students, faculty, alumni, and community partners who make a difference on campus and/or community to advance the Wisconsin Idea. Each award comes with a one-time scholarship incentive. Recipients will receive their award at the Wisconsin Idea Conference (see event above). Click here for more 24: Deadline to submit proposals to the N+1 Institute Reverse Pitch Competition is Tuesday, February 25. Despite tremendous advancements in technology, many regions of the world still lack access to advanced medical facilities and skilled physicians. The rise of IoT (Internet of Things) and global connectivity offers a promising solution by enabling the remote collection, access, and management of clinical data. However, to realize this vision, practical challenges such as security, connection reliability, equipment deployment, ease of use and overall cost to deliver must be addressed. While providing care to underserved regions and people, the vast volume of clinical data presents an incredible opportunity for additional research to improve healthcare for all. Your pitch should propose a novel and innovative solution to bridge these gaps and join our mission to deliver healthcare without boundaries. Click here to learn more and submit a proposal.

MARCH

- 1: Deadline to submit Student Engagement Grants is Saturday, March 1. Each year the Lakeshore Nature Preserve awards several Student Engagement Grants of up to $1000 each to facilitate the use of the Preserve as a resource for education among UW undergraduates. Any student, faculty, or staff member at the UW–Madison may apply. Groups of individuals may submit a proposal as a team. Every individual or team must have at least one faculty or staff member, who is expected to play an active role in overseeing the project. Click here to learn more and apply.
- 2: Application deadline for the Henry Anderson III Graduate Awards at the UW–Madison Global Health Institute is March 2, at 11:59pm (CST). The Henry Anderson III Graduate Student Award in Environmental and Occupational Public Health from the Global Health Institute (GHI) supports UW-Madison graduate or health professional students interested in pursuing research in the areas of environmental and occupational public health—that is the study of the role of environmental or occupational factors as determinants of health (See story above). Click here to learn more and apply.
- 3: Deadline to nominate a mentor for the 'Awards for Mentoring Undergraduates In Research, Scholarly and Creative Activities' is Monday, March 3. The Office of the Provost offers awards to recognize the important role mentors play in fostering undergraduates' intellectual, personal and professional growth through participation in high-impact practices including research, scholarly and creative endeavors. These awards provide faculty members, groups of mentors, academic staff, post-doctoral fellows and graduate students with recognition for their excellence in mentoring undergraduates and their contribution to students' Wisconsin Experience. Click here to learn more and nominate.
- 3: Deadline to apply for 4W Innovation Grants for Faculty and Staff Is Monday, March 3, at 5pm (CST). These grants are provided as general support—which can be used toward summer salary, course buy out, or other arrangement with school or department—to allow a faculty or academic staff member to devote time to develop a key initiative related to gender and wellbeing. Projects should align with the vision and core values of the 4W program, and should have a research-to-action focus that aims to enhance gender equity in communities locally or globally. Such projects should also employ gender analyses and/or use an intersectional feminist lens to address equity for all. Applications are open to all

Grant was established with support from the women's Philanthropy Council. Pind more information on the 4vv grants page here.

3: Deadline to apply for 4W Engagement Grants for Emerging Scholars Is Monday, March 3, at 5pm (CST). These grants are intended to flexibly support graduate students in any relevant discipline who are engaged in work related to gender and wellbeing. These grants may be used for project expenses or travel related to community-based research or practice, including internships, independent study projects, and pre-dissertation or prethesis groundwork. Projects should have a research-to-action focus aimed at enhancing gender equity in Wisconsin or globally. They should also align with 4W's vision and core values, and employ gender analyses and/or use an intersectional feminist lens to address equity for all. 4W anticipates awarding grants of up to $2500 each. The 4W Engagement Grants for Emerging Scholars were established with support from the Women's Philanthropy Council. Find more information on the 4W grants page here.

7: University Health Services (UHS) invites student survivors to submit artwork for a gallery of survivor art in support of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. This April, UHS Survivor Services and Violence Prevention will host Connect & Reflect, a series of events and spaces for survivors of sexual violence and allies. The "Reflect" exhibit will be hosted from April 1, 2024, to April 30, 2024, with plans to feature student survivor art, a historical review of significant moments in campus sexual assault activism over the last 50 years, and opportunities for student engagement to inform sexual violence work on our campus. Students are welcome to submit any pieces that represent their experience(s) of survivorship. We welcome artwork created specifically for this exhibit and/or previously created art. For more information and to indicate interest in submitting artwork, please complete this online form by Friday, March 7.

management practices on water quality, engaging in community-based water quality monitoring, and exploring the epidemiology of waterborne pathogens affecting human health in rural communities. Click here to learn more and apply.

- 7: Deadline to submit poster proposals to Showcase 2025 is Friday, March 7. The Office of Strategic Consulting's annual Showcase event will take place on Thursday, April 17, and is designed to foster a culture of continuous improvement and organizational excellence at UW–Madison. It offers an opportunity for colleagues from across campus to share best practices, learn from each other's successes, and connect. If your school, college, division, or unit has implemented an improvement, innovation, or best practice over the past year, they invite you to share your success story by submitting a proposal to exhibit a poster at Showcase 2025. Click here to learn more and apply.
- 14: Deadline to apply for the Washington (WiW) Fall 2025 Program is Friday, March 14. WiW will host three information sessions this Spring so students may learn more about the WiW Program, including interning in Washington DC, completing classwork in domestic & international issues, and connecting with UW alumni & professionals (see dates in Feb & Mar above). Find more information on the WiW Internship Program here.
- 15: Deadline to submit applications to the 2025 Intensive Summer Multilanguage Seminar (MULTI) is Saturday, March 15. The Intensive Summer Multilanguage Seminar supports students to engage in online, performance-based self-instructional language study of a less commonly taught language (LCTL). Interested students should contact the Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes program office (multilanguage@lpo.wisc.edu) as soon as possible to determine their eligibility. Click here to learn more. If interested, click here to apply.
- 16: Deadline to submit applications to the 2025 Undergraduate Symposium is Sunday, March 16. Open to all undergraduates, the symposium provides the opportunity for students to present their work in a professional setting. It also provides students with practical experience in public speaking and presentation skills. Additionally, it serves as a forum for campus and community members to learn about and engage with undergraduate work. Click here to learn more and submit your application.
- 17: The UW-Madison Global Health Institute (GHI), Office of Global Health in the School of Medicine and Public Health (SMPH), and CALS Global in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences (CALS) are accepting abstracts for poster presentations for the 20th Global Health Symposium: Why Global Health Networks Matter. UW-Madison faculty, clinicians, staff, students, and partners who are addressing global health and disease in their respective fields and research are invited to submit a poster abstract and present their work. From basic research to education to applied projects in the field, the symposium hopes to showcase the full spectrum of UW-Madison's global health activity. Presentations from all disciplines are encouraged—from arts, agriculture and business, to education, engineering, humanities, to all the health sciences, and more (see story above). Poster abstract submissions are DUE by 11:59 p.m., March 17, 2025. Click here for info to submit.

OVV Distinguished Research Fellows Program is designed to support outstanding postdoctoral trainees in interdisciplinary research areas related to RISE-AI, RISE-THRIVE, and RISE-EARTH. The intent of this program is to support exceptional emerging scholars in collaborative research that spans two distinct units (schools, colleges and centers) at UW–Madison, and which synergizes distinct disciplinary approaches. Click here to learn more and apply.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

- + From University Health Services: Students no longer need an Access appointment to connect with UHS Group Counseling. Simply call 608-256-5600 (option 2) or schedule your pre-group orientation online at MyUHS. The pre-group orientation is a oneon-one phone call with the group facilitator, where they will review the topics covered in the group and give students a chance to ask questions. Learn more and view the spring Group Counseling schedule.
- + ICYMI: From WPR: "Two researchers recently joined WPR's "Wisconsin Today" to talk about how our gut microbiomes can influence us in good and bad ways. Vanessa Sperandio, professor and chair of the medical microbiology and immunology department at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, has studied how the connect between the intestinal system and the brain called the gut-brain axis — plays into addiction." Click here for the full story.

reading suggestions in GHI's Events+, send them to communications@ghi.wisc.edu by noon on Fridays.

Learn more about the Global Health Institute at ghi.wisc.edu.

Copyright © 2025 UW-Madison Global Health Institute, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

